

Parent and Child Hitting Camp
Saskatoon Field House Batting Cage
March 27th

Sask Baseball will be hosting a hitting camp at the Saskatoon Field House for Mosquito and Pee Wee coaches/parents and their children. This clinic will be facilitated by Dave Robb formerly of Mesa, Arizona. Dave Robb is a former coach in the Oakland A's system and also contributed to Canada's National team as hitting coach.

This clinic will feature drills and techniques that will be introduced by Coach Robb as he works closely with coaches/parents as they work with their children in hitting drills at the Saskatoon Field House Batting Cage.

Cost:

$30 per coach/child. Cheque can be made out to Sask Baseball Association.

How to Register:

Contact Sask Baseball's High Performance Director, Greg Brons at gbrons@sasktel.net . Please indicate which session you and your child can attend. There is limited space.

Date: Saturday March 27^t

Session #1 – 4:00 - 5:30

Session #2 – 5:30 – 7:00

What to Bring: Players should bring a helmet, bat, and batting gloves. Coaches/Parents glove, pen, notebook and suitable workout attire.

Background on our learning facilitator Dave Robb:

Dave Robb is originally from Mesa, Arizona. He brings 36 years of coaching experience and in particular has worked with hitters at the college, professional and international levels. He was an assistant coach with Team Canada, in the Oakland A's system, and played as a player at Cal-State Fullerton. Dave also coached the Calgary Dawgs of the WMBL to a championship in 2004. With 7 consecutive playoff wins during the 2004 season his team won the WMBL Championship. In recognition of his outstanding effort, Coach Robb was named the WMBL "Coach of the Year". Currently Dave works closely with the Okotoks Dawgs and Okotoks Baseball Academy.

